Section #8 – Introduction to Minimum Company Standards Training

Purpose:

1. Establish minimum standards training for fire companies and fire fighters to assist in improving efficiency.
2. Allows for standard evolutions with specific time parameters and objectives to provide an objective means of measuring company proficiency.
3. Give company officers standard drill evolutions to train with their companies and measure the effectiveness of company level drill programs.
4. Meet the intent of NFPA 1500 Standard on Occupational Safety and Health and NFPA 1410 Training for Emergency Scene Operations

Company officers should periodically re-create these drill evolutions with their companies to maintain proficiency of all personnel.
